

SMART BYTES

Rajesh Mehra
Director
Jaquar Group

We are giving lot of focus on development of rural markets. We are revamping one of the brands, Esso, in terms of products, design and feature and giving a complete bathing solution to that level of customer

S Ramakrishnan
Head of retail banking
HSBC India

While more women are educated, entering the work force and earning income, many remain financially vulnerable as they attend to multiple responsibilities. It is important for them to find way to save for the future as early as possible

Jayantilal Challani
President
Madras Jewellers

Since we have decided to temporarily call off the strike, all the show-rooms will be opening immediately. Today, there is a meeting of the association members in Mumbai. We will be deciding our next course of action there

Claudio Borio
Chief, Bank for International Settlements

The tension between the markets' tranquility and the underlying economic vulnerabilities had to be resolved at some point. In the recent quarter, we may have been witnessing the beginning of its resolution
